Child Victims and Witnesses Support Materials Application for Printed Materials

The Center for Justice Innovation, with the support of the U.S. Department of Justice (DOJ), Office of Justice Programs (OJP), Office for Victims of Crime (OVC), is providing eligible applicants the opportunity to print and disseminate up to $10,000 worth of the child victims and witnesses support materials.

Project Background

Children and young people are amongst the most vulnerable members of our society and are widely regarded as requiring greater care and protection. However, despite this, children are frequently victims of or witnesses to violence, abuse, and other crimes including domestic violence, community violence, and commercial sexual exploitation. Resulting from this exposure to violence and victimization, children are often required to encounter and navigate criminal legal and child welfare systems. These systems are commonly regarded as intimidating, confusing and overwhelming for adults, let alone for children, whose systems involvement may exacerbate their trauma and distress. In addition, research indicates that children, despite their younger age, perceive procedural fairness as an important component of their justice system involvement, but this is often lacking. Procedural fairness would require children to have a better understanding of the legal system, which includes its processes, the roles of the professionals involved, and the sources of information that are used to make decisions.

The Center for Justice Innovation, with support from the U.S. Office for Victims of Crime (OVC), sought to address these systemic gaps and further the DOJ's mission of enhancing the field's response to young victims of crime. The result, after much national outreach and collaboration, is a series of illustrated booklets and graphic novels aimed at guiding and supporting child victims and witnesses as they navigate the justice system. Materials have been developed for three different age groups, 2-6, 7-12 and 13-18 years, with separate materials for criminal legal and child welfare settings. Each of the materials utilize illustrated narratives featuring child and adolescent characters that explain how the criminal legal and child welfare systems work in a child-friendly and developmentally appropriate way. The materials focus on normalizing and validating children's feelings and experiences; teaching healthy coping and resilience building skills; explaining the various processes and roles of the many criminal legal and child welfare system practitioners with whom the children will interact; providing tips for testifying; and informing children of their rights as a crime victim and/or witness. Translations are available in Spanish, Chinese (simplified), Arabic, Vietnamese, and Haitian Creole.

In recognition of the unique and varied experiences of child victims and witnesses, specialized materials have been created for children aged 12-18 years who have experienced human trafficking. Translated versions of these materials are available in Spanish, Chinese (simplified), Vietnamese, Brazilian Portuguese, and African French. Specialized materials have also been created for Native American child victims and witnesses aged 2-18 years, which were designed by Native American authors and illustrators.

These Child Victims and Witnesses Support Materials are all available on OVC's website for free download and are intended to be used by any practitioner that works with child victims and witnesses. While this digitized approach provides excellent, immediate access to the materials, there are limitations to this approach if internet access is unstable or unreliable. Furthermore, several studies indicate that reading comprehension levels are higher for printed rather than digital books. This is particularly relevant for child victims and witnesses who have experienced trauma, which can affect brain development and cognition. Therefore, to further assist national dissemination and increase access and utilization of the materials, OVC has provided additional funds for agencies to apply for printed materials up to $10,000 worth. The Center has subcontracted with a printing agency to print and ship the materials to selected applicants.

Eligibility

Applications for this printing opportunity can be accepted from the following agencies that work directly with child victims and witnesses:

- City or township governments
- County governments
- For profit organizations other than small businesses
- Native American tribal governments (Federally recognized)
- Native American tribal organizations (other than Federally recognized tribal governments)
- Nonprofits having a 501(c)(3) status with the IRS (other than institutions of higher education)
- Public and State controlled institutions of higher education
- Public housing authorities/Indian housing authorities
- Small businesses

How to Apply

Complete the online application form by January 31, 2025. The form will ask applicants to download, complete, and upload a separate excel form, itemizing the number of copies of materials that are being requested. A full list of the materials can be found at the bottom of this document or by referring to OVC's website.

If you cannot access the application form or have any questions on how to complete the application, please email the Center's Child Witness Materials Project team at cwmp@innovatingjustice.org.

Selection Criteria

The Center and OVC will review applications with consideration of the following factors:

1. Details of agency (5 points)
2. Location and work with underserved communities and child victims and witnesses (15 points)
3. Proposed materials for printing (5 points)
4. Demonstrated need for funds for printing (5 points)
5. Clear distribution of the materials directly with child victims and witnesses (15 points)
6. Certification and statement of commitment (5 points)

Due to limitations in funding, priority will be given to agencies that are either based in rural areas or Tribal lands, or who work directly with child victims and witnesses in rural or Native American communities, and who demonstrate a clear need for this printing opportunity.

Selection and Timeline

The Center and OVC expect to award 15-20 agencies this printing opportunity during this application round. Please see below for an estimated timeline:

- November 14- January 31, 2025: Application round open for submissions.
- Mid-late February, 2025: Notification to all applicants.
- March- April 2025: Selected applicants will work with the Center to finalize the list of requested printed materials and shipping address. Agencies will then receive the printed the materials.

If you are unable to apply now, future application rounds are available. The next application round is tentatively scheduled for late Spring/early Summer 2025. Applicants that are not selected during this round may also be considered or rolled over to the next round.
